

Guess the adjective

Can you work out whether the adjective in these sentences should be positive, comparative or superlative? Select the correct words from the lists.

i. Shakespeare's Birthplace is a _____ site.

- historic
- the most historic
- more historic

ii. Troilus and Cressida was _____ successful of Shakespeare's plays.

- little
- the least
- less

iii. Was Shakespeare a _____ writer than Christopher Marlowe?

- better
- good
- best

iv. New Place was the _____ house in Stratford when Shakespeare bought it.

- largest
- larger
- large

v. The Shakespeare Birthplace Trust is _____ because it preserves Shakespeare's homes and gardens.

- the most important
- important
- more important

Guess the adjective (continued)

vi. Anne Hathaway was _____ than Shakespeare.

- oldest
- older
- old

vii. The gardens at Hall's Croft are _____ .

- lovelier
- lovely
- loveliest

viii. Anne Hathaway's Cottage is _____ than Mary Arden's Farm.

- the most beautiful
- beautiful
- more beautiful

ix. Shakespeare is England's _____ playwright.

- great
- greater
- greatest

x. Lady Macbeth is _____ Shakespeare villain.

- worse
- bad
- the worst

Guess the adjective (continued)

xi. I think "To be, or not to be" is _____ Shakespeare quote.

- more famous
- famous
- the most famous

xii. Stratford-upon-Avon is a _____ tourist destination than Luton.

- more popular
- popular
- the most popular