

Mulberry quiz

Use the Planters' World article to help you answer the questions below. Tick the correct answer.

i. Why is it difficult to grow white mulberries in England?

- It is too dry
- It is too cold
- It is too sunny

ii. When do mulberries bear fruit in England?

- Late spring
- Winter
- Late summer

iii. What is the name of the fabric made from the silk fibre?

- Silk
- Cotton
- Satin

iv. Which of these is a characteristic of silk?

- Lustrous
- Lacklustre
- Dull

v. To which royal dynasty did Henry VIII belong?

- Tudor
- Elizabethan
- Stuart

Mulberry quiz (continued)

vi. From where did James I import mulberries?

- China
- India
- Europe

vii. What happened to Shakespeare's mulberry tree at New Place?

- It was cut down
- It burnt down
- It was moved to another garden

viii. Why don't silkworms like to feed on black mulberries?

- The leaves are too green
- The leaves are too tough
- They don't like the colour black

ix. Why do silkworms produce silk?

- For food
- For fun
- To spin silk cocoons

x. What are adult silkworms called?

- Silk butterflies
- Silk moths
- Silk snakes