

Using garden verbs

Nezha has written a blog about her first day at the Shakespeare Birthplace Trust. Can you complete her planting instructions by writing the correct verbs in the empty boxes as shown in the example?

The screenshot shows a browser window with the URL `english-through-gardening.com`. The page title is "Nezha's Garden Blog" with the subtitle "Gardening in England with the REEP McLAREN Scholarship". The main heading is "How to plant a sedum". Below the heading is a list of 7 instructions, each with a dashed box for a verb. The word bank on the right contains: water, place, grow, dig, firm, and remove. The word "refill" is already written in the box for instruction 4.

How to plant a sedum

1. a hole in the soil
2. the plant from its pot
3. the roots in the hole
4. the hole with soil
5. the soil around the plant
6. the plant
7. it!

water
place grow dig firm remove