

Past simple tense

The past simple tense is usually formed by adding -d, -ed or -ied at the end of a verb. However, some verbs don't follow these rules at all and like to do their own thing! Complete this activity to see if you can work out which verbs follow the rules and which do not.

Write the past simple form of the verbs shown

design

answer

dig

answer

garden

answer

grow

answer

move

answer

place

answer

plan

answer

plant

answer

water

answer

Past simple tense (continued)

arrange

answer

firm

answer

loosen

answer

refill

answer

replace

answer